How To Get Your Season Pass

First, your season pass is a privilege, and, as with all privileges, if you abuse it you will lose it. Please obey all area rules, regulations, and ski/board in a safe, responsible manner. The following are the procedures you will follow to be eligible for a season pass.

- You must complete all employment paperwork.
- You will then be issued a season pass application, if applicable, to the ski area where you are working. Some staff members may not be eligible for season passes at some ski areas.
- The ski area will assess a $25 late fee for forms received after December 31, 2011.
- Any abuse of your season pass (or day tickets) constitutes theft and is grounds for immediate termination. You must show your pass or ticket each time you use a lift and at any time you are requested to do so by area personnel. Allowing someone else to use your pass or ticket is considered fraud and is grounds for immediate termination.
- If you leave employment of Ski Masters Ski School, Inc. prior to the end of your work assignment, you are required to return your season pass. There are no refunds for season passes. Failure to return your season pass constitutes theft and this information will be given to the ski area. You may then be charged full price for your pass plus any applicable fines.

I understand the above information of how to obtain my staff season pass.
